

1. How are government policies related to inequality - specifically, taxes rate, level of debt, government spending?
2. What is the relationship between economic output and wealth and income inequality - specifically, how is income inequality associated with the poverty rate and GDP per capita?
3. What is the relationship between income inequality and non-economic factors - specifically crime, childhood education attainment and the environment?